

Let us invite you to an opening of an entirely new collection of paintings and a meeting with its author.

SUREN MESROPYAN

IF I WAS 95

„This ambitious, reputable Armenian artist graduated two artistic academies. The foundations joined talent and new cultural values into a colourful view of the world of joy and sorrow. He draws big life stories with a unique approach to colour and woman sensuality. He expresses love for our existence in each of his pictures what makes his work exceptional.“ LM

The opening will take place on Thursday, July 9, 2020 at 6:00 p.m. in an attractive gallery Lampy, Černyševského 42, Bratislava.

Conception of the exhibition: PhDr. Ľuboslav Moza PhD. During the event a young, interesting writer Laura Ensi will introduce her two fascinating books „Fellowship“ (Maxim publishing).

The exhibition will last until July 31, 2020 and is open daily except Weekend from 8:00 – 19:30. R.S.V.P.: +421254789416, artem@artem.sk
